HEAD COACH GERRY DiBARTOLO

The 1995 season marks Dr. Gerry DiBartolo's 14th year as head coach of the Salisbury State University soccer program. As the second winningest coach in the program's history, he reached a unique career milestone last season when he registered his 100th career victory. His 36 wins over the past three seasons is the highest three-year victory total in the sport's 59-year history at SSU.

DiBartolo, 110-95-20 overall, has led the Sea Gulls to three successive campaigns with 10 or more wins since 1992. During that span, his teams have collected one conference championship ('92), one postseason appearance (ECAC, '93) and a regular season conference title ('94).

Coming off a breakthrough 13-2-1 season in 1992, DiBartolo was named the NSCAA\Umbro South Atlantic Coach of the Year. He followed with another strong campaign in 1993 as the Gulls posted 11 wins and earned their first postseason bid since 1985. Salisbury State finished as the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) South Region runner up. Last season, he was named Coach of the Year in the Capital Athletic Conference as the Sea Gulls finished first in the regular season with a 6-0-1 mark.

Honors, awards and championships are nothing new for the well-respected Sea Gull mentor. DiBartolo was honored as Maryland Small College Coach of the Year in 1983 and 1984 as the Gulls captured the Maryland state championship both seasons. He also led Salisbury State to the Eastern States Athletic Conference (ESAC) championship in 1987 and 1992, and was recognized as the ESAC Coach of the Year in 1992.

A 1975 graduate of Frostburg State University, where he played for four seasons and captained the team as a senior, DiBartolo worked two years as the assistant coach there before moving to the Eastern Shore. He served as a Sea Gull assistant for three seasons before taking over as head man in 1982. DiBartolo serves as chair of the ECAC's Division III South Tournament selection committee, as well as chair of the NSCAA South Atlantic Coach of the Year committee.

DiBartolo also teaches in SSU's Franklin P. Perdue School of Business, earning his D.B.A. from George Washington University in 1995. DiBartolo and his wife, Mary, have two children, Dominic and Anthony, and reside in Salisbury.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Brian Polczynski

Back for his third year on the sidelines after a productive SSU playing career is former goalie Brian Polczynski. The Waldorf, MD, native transferred to Salisbury State prior to the 1991 season and was the starting netminder for the '91 and '92 seasons. He ranks second on the all-time shutout list with 14, including eight shutouts in 1992 when he finished with a 0.68 goals against average. Polczynski will work primarily with the goalkeepers this season.

Kevin Darcy

Another former Sea Gull player, Kevin Darcy is also serving his third season as an assistant. The Pocomoke, MD, native, a three-time letter-winner for the Gulls, was the team MVP following his senior season in 1991. He scored one goal and added three assists from his midfield position that year, earning all-conference and all-region honors. Darcy was also an assistant on the 1992 team which finished 13-2-1.

Ed Beach

Joining the staff as the newest assistant this season is Arlington, VA, native Ed Beach. A four-year letterman as a midfielder at George Mason University, Beach played on two Patriots squads that advanced to the NCAA Division I Postseason Tournament. GMU also won the Colonial Athletic Association title once during his career. A 1993 graduate of George Mason, Beach also has one season of international experience with club soccer in Germany.

Tom Karle is serving as a student assistant.

GULLS ENJOY NEW HOME

The Sea Gulls will be looking to continue their impressive debut in their new home stadium this fall. In the first season on the new turf in 1994, SSU posted an 8-1-2 record. The new site, adjacent to SSU's previous home field on Wayne Avenue, features two, newly sodded 120 x 75 game fields with in-ground irrigation systems. The new site also includes permanent bleacher seating for 500 spectators per field, an electronic scoreboard and a two-level press box.

SSU BUILDING ON SUCCESS

With 36 wins over the past three seasons, the Salisbury State University men's soccer program appears to be at its zenith. Each of the past three seasons has yielded new records, milestones and accomplishments. The success-building began with the breakthrough 1992 season, clearly the most successful in SSU soccer history. In addition to setting a school record with 13 victories, the Gulls remained unbeaten for the last month of the season and closed the year on a 7-0-1 run following a six-game winning streak during September. Salisbury State won the Eastern States Athletic Conference championship that year, and claimed the unofficial Maryland Division III title with a 4-0 record against in-state competition.

In 1993, the Gulls earned their first postseason bid since 1985, and finished as the ECAC South Region runners up. SSU won 10 of its final 13 regular season games to earn the bid, and enjoyed a school-record 10-game unbeaten string (nine wins and one tie) during the season. The offense set a new school record with 43 goals scored, while the defense posted six shutouts during the year. Once again, SSU won all four of its games against in-state competition.

In 1994, the Sea Gulls moved into a new conference, the Capital Athletic Conference, and promptly claimed the league's regular season title. SSU snapped Mary Washington's 30-match CAC winning streak, and posted a nine-game unbeaten streak while registering a 12-3-3 overall record. Along the way, the Gulls once again set a new team scoring record with 54 goals, and tied the season record of 10 shutouts. Another unblemished record against in-state competition upped Salisbury's mark to 12-0 against Maryland rivals over the last three seasons.

With 14 returning lettermen, there appears to be an experienced nucleus for another strong squad in 1995.
